Fight the cuts! There is an alternative

Socialism 2010 is the weekend to debate how we can fight back against cuts, war and environmental destruction, and debate how a socialist alternative can be built. Rally speakers include: US anti-war activist Cindy Sheehan, who made worldwide headlines when she camped outside George Bush's Texas ranch in 2005 following the death of her son in Iraq; Fire Brigade Union leader Matt Wrack and RMT transport union president Alex Gordon, who are both involved in disputes that affect the safety of workers and service users in London; civil service union president Jancie Godrich; Andros Payiatsos, the general secretary of the Socialist Party's sister organisation in Greece; and Peter Taaffe, Socialist Party general secretary. There will now also be a session to discuss the current strike wave in France and how it compares to the events of May 1968.

Why you should support the Socialism 2010 appeal

WERE YOU incensed by the sickening spectacle of millionaire Tory and Liberal MPs cheering the most savage cuts in public spending since the 1920s? If so, you should join the fightback!

Ken Douglas
Socialist Party national treasurer

A mass campaign against all the cuts can drive the Tories and Lib Dems back - that is the message that Socialist Party members are taking into the trade unions and anti-cuts campaigns across England and Wales. The party is raising the need to build for a mass demo against the cuts this year as a first step to strike action across the public sector.

But we need your support. This year's Socialism appeal needs to raise at least £25,000 to ensure that we have the finance to step up our campaigning in 2011, that's why we are appealing to all members and supporters of the Socialist Party and to all readers of The Socialist for a donation.

Part of your donation will also go to the Committee for a Workers' International (CWI), which has affiliated parties and organisations in more than 35 countries.

A CWI world congress will be held this year and your donation will help delegates from sections across the world attend the congress to participate in the discussions and debates.

The Socialist Party doesn't have the big business backers that the Tories do, but depends entirely on donations from ordinary people. Your donation, whether it is a few pounds or £50 or £100 or more, is essential to enable us to reach as wide an audience as possible.

Cameron, Clegg and Osborne think they can take us back one hundred years to when public services barely existed - make a donation today, join us and help wipe the smirks off those smug Tory faces.
