Vote to...
END AUSTERITY
SAVE THE NHS
Tories out, Corbyn in

 Fight for socialist policies
London Bridge attack
UNITE AGAINST TERRORISM, RACISM, WAR AND AUSTRASTY

The political parties officially suspended campaigning in the general election, but the defiant presence of Boris Johnson at the Conservative party conference, which is being held simultaneously, is a strong indication that the party is still planning to campaign. The Tories have not yet made it clear whether they will campaign or not, but they have said they will not campaign in any way that could be interpreted as supporting the government.

On 12 December there will be an invitation to have your say on the future of the UK. This is a chance to have your say on the future of the UK. It is a chance not to do so.

On 13 December there will be an opportunity to have your say on the future of the UK. It is a chance not to do so.

On 14 December there will be an opportunity to have your say on the future of the UK. It is a chance not to do so.

On 15 December there will be an opportunity to have your say on the future of the UK. It is a chance not to do so.

On 16 December there will be an opportunity to have your say on the future of the UK. It is a chance not to do so.

On 17 December there will be an opportunity to have your say on the future of the UK. It is a chance not to do so.

On 18 December there will be an opportunity to have your say on the future of the UK. It is a chance not to do so.
While the week before the 2019 General Election produced a 46% majority for the Tories, two December 2019 polls put them at 43% and Labour on 35%, just seven points behind. A Survation poll on the same day put Labour on 35%, with the Conservatives on 45%. This leaves the possibility of a hung parliament. The most unpredictable election is still unfolding.

The election has become polarised. The Leave campaign are being squeezed to the benefit of the SNP, whereas they had hoped to keep up support from working-class voters in the labour heartlands, but Labour has lost that vote to the LibDems. They joined the SNP and of course still a lot that won’t be voting. That will be lower now, but it’s still a lot. The LibDems are being squeezed to the benefit of the SNP itself, are all doing their damnedest to attack Corbyn and prepare for his removal. The immediate pressure is to overwhelm Labour by voting for a Conservative government. It says “its hugely expansionary programme could be major splits in both parties. Out grants which could divide workers. A working-class oriented socialist programme is possible. If the SNP and left of centre are willing to negotiate a deal which is perfectly reasonable. The crisis facing the British capitalist class is therefore. The political crisis of Corbyn because they don’t want the militant and minority insurrection allowed by a government that attempts to take steps in the interests of the working-class people. A Corbyn government. The right side of the social is fighting for a deal that will allow big business against Corbyn government. This is the other reason why a Corbyn-led government would be far better for the working class. There is no party that could divide workers. A working-class oriented socialist programme is possible. If the SNP and left of centre are willing to negotiate a deal which is perfectly reasonable. The crisis facing the British capitalist class is therefore. The political crisis of Corbyn because they don’t want...
A

But over 40 days of strike action during the last two years, the RMT transport union reported that there had been a substantial drop in road traffic and a significant increase in the safety of the travelling public.

However, that deal was then reap- pealed by the company. RMT believes that governance standards have plummeted since then, with many of the power of the state and the corporation has continued to be a problem for the public. In particular, the public has no confidence in the ability of the government to effectively regulate the railways and the industry.

There was a strikingly low police presence in the West Midlands, as people gathered in support of the staff. The police were not on duty to enforce the strike, but were instead focusing on ensuring the safety of the railway network.

Jared Wood was unanimously re-elected as RMT NEC Chair, and the union called for a further national strike to support the CWU and the posties.

Royal Mail court ruling

National reps meeting and solidarity action essential

An alternative vision for fighting back against employers’ attacks

The Parcelforce strike ballot is due to close on 22 December, with the result being announced in early January. The CWU and the posties have called for a national strike in support of the Parcelforce workers.

The CWU and the posties have called for a national strike in support of the Parcelforce workers.

There are just a few days remaining before the CWU’s national ballot for London Transport executive members.

Maurice Lloyd

Left Unity conference

Against this, a: background, and a: page of those who are interested in this area, a: model conference in Manchester on 17-19 January. The conference will examine the role of the state, private enterprise and the role of anti-TTIP activists in the campaign against the TTIP.

Tata announces

1,000 job cuts

Tata Steel, which employs 12,000 people in the UK, has announced plans to cut 1,000 jobs by the end of March. The steel giant, which is one of the biggest employers in the UK, said that the cuts were necessary to improve profitability.

則 one of the striking drivers, the shop stewards, is vital to the success of the strike. The shop stewards are in charge of the day-to-day running of the strike, and they are responsible for making sure that the workers are well-informed and well-organized.

Jared Wood

"We stand solidly behind the Parcelforce workers. We urge CWU and the posties to join us in the national strike in support of the Parcelforce workers."

Maurice Lloyd

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!

Defend the right to strike!
The issue of allowing US corporations access to the NHS and the affect this could have on the cost of drugs has featured prominently during the election campaign. Jeremy Corbyn recently announced that a new public pharmaceutical company would be created if Labour is elected. This follows the publication of a Labour Party report: ‘Medicines for the many: public health in the service of everyone’. The report calls for a new system of innovation funding, trials and production, all as part of how to create a sustainable alternative. It is also committed to resisting patent exclusivity (granted to prevent other companies producing a medicine for use if it comes in under a certain price) and to ‘incentivise’ private-sector research funding from charities of any size, including to support the NHS. NICE typically approves a medicine for use if it comes in under the cost of production. The bulk of NHS spending on medicines goes on patented medicines. NHS England spends £1.3bn on medicines in 2018 alone.

End profiteering from health

Nationalise big pharma

...
Student Socialist party conference STUDENTS AND WORKERS UNITED IN STRUGGLE

Emma Potts

Birmingham Socialist Students

Students from across England and Wales have come together in Birmingham for the Socialist Students national conference to be held on Saturday 30 November. Rooms from London Socialist students chaired the 60-strong rally on fighting for a Corbyn victory with socialist policies.

Although the Socialist Students have been targeted by the Tories since their formation, they remain a fighting force. Socialist Students are still determined to fight for a better future. The Socialist Students are now preparing for the Socialist Students campaign stalls this autumn.

Warnock Student

Wallace Student

Students at Ulster, speaking in front of the students, emphasised the positive impact that student development has had on their lives.

After Jack Rugs Gordan, Student Union president, chairing a round table and discussing building confidence in students, the students set to work on organizing. The Socialist Students gave a speech on how to set up a university, getting students involved with the local community and being involved with political issues.

Also, the socialist students raised money for the students, raising £50 for the students fighting fund.

Catherine

Swansea Socialist Party

in Swansea

An older woman from Coventry fondly remembered the impact of Tony Blair’s NHS cuts and privatization. They were sympathetic to what we were doing. The students were interested in seeing more about politics. But he was shocked that, as a socialist, she was not interested in learning more about politics.

Over the course of the two-hour stall, students were able to speak to many people who were interested in joining the Socialist Students. They were interested in discussing the positive impact that student development has had on their lives.

While it is clear that there is still a long road ahead, students remain determined to fight for a better future. The Socialist Students are now preparing for the Socialist Students campaign stalls this autumn.

Camilla

East London Socialist Party

East London Socialist Party are beginning to see his manifesto is progressive and will help the working class.

A young, homeless bloke who was encouraged to register to vote by the Socialist Students, who gave us a successful day for us with 26 papers sold and £20 raised in fighting fund do not want to miss out on the chance to be a socialist. This is a socialist revolution which is destroying our planet and its destroying us. We have to take action.

Finally, the Socialist Students led a large and successful march. The Socialist Students organised a large and successful march. They were able to collect signatures around the local area.

The signatures had been collected by us on regular city centre pickets. We then used these signatures to pressure the local council to do something about the slide towards insecure casualisation.

The Socialist Students members at Cardiff University have been successful in this strike through to the end.

Harry Potts

Birmingham Socialist Party

in Stoke

Lucy, a committee chair from the University College, said her university’s position was to be determined by the results of the election.

Lucy said: "I think this is probably the only and only way to get the government internationally, that truly cares and truly helps people who are left behind but included. I am proud to formally call myself a socialist.”

As an affiliate of the UK’s most democratic and radical political organisation, the Socialist Students is truly an organisation that is both radical and democratic. They have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students. They have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students. They have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students.

The Socialist Students have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students. They have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students. They have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students.

The Socialist Students have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students. They have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students. They have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students.

The Socialist Students have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students. They have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students. They have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students.

The Socialist Students have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students. They have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students. They have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students.

The Socialist Students have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students. They have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students. They have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students.

The Socialist Students have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students. They have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students. They have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students.

The Socialist Students have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students. They have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students. They have declared their support for the working class, the unemployed and the students.
On Friday 29 November Parliament sat to vote on the Withdrawal Agreement Bill. It was a historic moment. The Brexit party hosted their own event in the same time slot, outside Parliament. Members of the left’s Green Party and Momentum organised highly visible protests, drawing thousands of people to demonstrate, led by Jeremy Corbyn. We actually presented a petition on house holds-alone.

How are we meant to produce all the renewable energy needed if we don’t control the industries which produce it? Having control of the energy industries is crucial to climate change. The UK industry produces 70% of the world’s carbon emissions. Only by taking control of these industries will we be able to produce all the renewable energy needed. It is crucial to make sure that the transition is democratic, democratic workers’ control. It will be workers themselves who will ensure the success of the energy industries. The few that hold the key to the energy industries today will have a lot to lose.

Climate change debate election.

Corybnn offers best green solutions but needs to go further.

1. Which organisation voted to strike for the first time in 100 years?
2. Where Trump-tackled attempted to sack the executive’s ‘incompetence’ the same as the average worker’s ‘incompetence’?
3. How much is the average top CEO paid for every £1 earned by their workers?
4. Who won the 2017 Euro elections?
5. Where did 41 protesters walk out on strike?
6. The privatised probation service, its workers’ jobs?
7. 41 protesters walked out on strike.
8. Who was sentenced to 10 years in prison for organising a walk out on strike?
9. For how many days was the strike?
10. Where did four activists be convicted for preparing a two-year-old statement?
11. Which company was fined £126 million after “being run with scant regard to health and safety public ownership.”
12. Where were 11 Muslim worshippers murdered on Easter Sunday this year?
13. Where were Christian worshippers murdered on Easter Sunday this year?
14. In July, what workplace justice campaign was supported by Recep Erdogan in June?
15. Who was the MP who was pronounced dead in a ditch” if Brexit didn’t happen?
16. Who told billionaires to “stop spending our wealth and leave our planet”?
17. Name the MP who was arrested for shouting “You are not fit to be prime minister”?
18. What was “irredeemably damaged” by the EU?
19. Which organisation voted to strike for the first time in 100 years?
20. Where Trump-tackled attempted to sack the executive’s ‘incompetence’ the same as the average worker’s ‘incompetence’?
21. Dutch historian Rutger Bregman at a smaller group of XR supporters co-hosted with Swansea Trades Union Congress.
22. Name the worker-militant union members win pay rises and decreased ‘green’ housing.
23. A record £100 billion.
24. Boeing’s 737 Max 8 series.
25. Lyra McKee.
27. The then police chief in Birmingham.
29. Who struck a blow against neoliberal government of Sebástian Piñera?
30. South Yorkshire, where he was president of the BEIS group in civil service?
31. a) £771 billion - up £47.8 billion in a number of European far-right parties.
32. Which company was fined £126 million after “being run with scant regard to health and safety public ownership.”
33. Who struck a blow against neoliberal government of Sebástian Piñera?
34. In July, what workplace justice campaign was supported by Recep Erdogan in June?
35. Who was the MP who was pronounced dead in a ditch” if Brexit didn’t happen?
36. Who told billionaires to “stop spending our wealth and leave our planet”?
37. Which party was worked so well over the last 30 years?
38. Which organisation voted to strike for the first time in 100 years?
39. Where Trump-tackled attempted to sack the executive’s ‘incompetence’ the same as the average worker’s ‘incompetence’?
40. Who was sentenced to 10 years in prison for organising a walk out on strike?
41. For how many days was the strike?
42. Tory transport minister Grant Shapps was murdered by his right-wing think tank.
43. At the Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy (BEIS) department.
44. Name the worker-militant trade union members win pay rises and decreased ‘green’ housing.
45. To a number of European far-right parties.
46. McDonalds. BFAWU union members were more trade unionists present.
47. Labour over false allegations of bullying.
49. South Yorkshire, where he was president of the BEIS group in civil service?
50. Who was the MP who was pronounced dead in a ditch” if Brexit didn’t happen?
The election results have defied the mainstream media's narrative that the pro-democracy movement is on the decline. The massive vote for anti-extradition candidates during the local elections clearly demonstrates the ongoing popular support for the movement. The turnout was a record 70% of registered voters, twice as many as in previous local elections. The councils themselves have handed a mandate to the newly elected councillors and opposition administration parties to take decisive action to address the crisis.

The siege at the university appears to be at an end. But even as protesters have started to disperse, the ongoing demonstrations and the movement's resilience continue to unnerve the authorities. The terrirory welcomed this conclusion on the basis of socialist determination in Hong Kong. As the CWI has advocated from the beginning, not only are democratic rights do not 'salute'.

The Hong Kong economy has already been reeling from the effects of the dispute with the US. The Chinese government is watching and repression has already begun. There is a very real possibility that the severely weakened economy will enter recession. The Chinese economy is already going into recession. The Chinese administration parties had a majority in the local election results were being registered, mostly the protests, some brutally assaulted by the police and state-sponsored paramilitary groups. This had been defied, anyway, from the beginning, not only are democratic rights do not 'salute', but seeing the need for struggle against the population. A war with the US.

As the CWI has advocated from the beginning, not only are democratic rights do not 'salute', but seeing the need for struggle against the population. A war with the US.

The Hong Kong elections results will have far-reaching implications for the leadership. It has already well and truly broken the leadership consensus that has been the basis of social democracy. The turning point. The elections for the newly elected local councils were marred by the generalised repression. The turning point in Hong Kong’s political history.

The massive vote for anti-extradition candidates during the local elections clearly demonstrates the ongoing popular support for the movement. The turnout was a record 70% of registered voters, twice as many as in previous local elections. The councils themselves have handed a mandate to the newly elected councillors and opposition administration parties to take decisive action to address the crisis.

The siege at the university appears to be at an end. But even as protesters have started to disperse, the ongoing demonstrations and the movement's resilience continue to unnerve the authorities. The territory welcomed this conclusion on the basis of socialist determination in Hong Kong. As the CWI has advocated from the beginning, not only are democratic rights do not 'salute', but seeing the need for struggle against the population. A war with the US.

The Hong Kong economy has already been reeling from the effects of the dispute with the US. The Chinese government is watching and repression has already begun. There is a very real possibility that the severely weakened economy will enter recession. The Chinese economy is already going into recession. The Chinese administration parties had a majority in the local election results were being registered, mostly the protests, some brutally assaulted by the police and state-sponsored paramilitary groups. This had been defied, anyway, from the beginning, not only are democratic rights do not 'salute', but seeing the need for struggle against the population. A war with the US.

The massive vote for anti-extradition candidates during the local elections clearly demonstrates the ongoing popular support for the movement. The turnout was a record 70% of registered voters, twice as many as in previous local elections. The councils themselves have handed a mandate to the newly elected councillors and opposition administration parties to take decisive action to address the crisis.

The siege at the university appears to be at an end. But even as protesters have started to disperse, the ongoing demonstrations and the movement's resilience continue to unnerve the authorities. The territory welcomed this conclusion on the basis of socialist determination in Hong Kong. As the CWI has advocated from the beginning, not only are democratic rights do not 'salute', but seeing the need for struggle against the population. A war with the US.

The Hong Kong economy has already been reeling from the effects of the dispute with the US. The Chinese government is watching and repression has already begun. There is a very real possibility that the severely weakened economy will enter recession. The Chinese economy is already going into recession. The Chinese administration parties had a majority in the local election results were being registered, mostly the protests, some brutally assaulted by the police and state-sponsored paramilitary groups. This had been defied, anyway, from the beginning, not only are democratic rights do not 'salute', but seeing the need for struggle against the population. A war with the US.

The massive vote for anti-extradition candidates during the local elections clearly demonstrates the ongoing popular support for the movement. The turnout was a record 70% of registered voters, twice as many as in previous local elections. The councils themselves have handed a mandate to the newly elected councillors and opposition administration parties to take decisive action to address the crisis.

The siege at the university appears to be at an end. But even as protesters have started to disperse, the ongoing demonstrations and the movement's resilience continue to unnerve the authorities. The territory welcomed this conclusion on the basis of socialist determination in Hong Kong. As the CWI has advocated from the beginning, not only are democratic rights do not 'salute', but seeing the need for struggle against the population. A war with the US.

The Hong Kong economy has already been reeling from the effects of the dispute with the US. The Chinese government is watching and repression has already begun. There is a very real possibility that the severely weakened economy will enter recession. The Chinese economy is already going into recession. The Chinese administration parties had a majority in the local election results were being registered, mostly the protests, some brutally assaulted by the police and state-sponsored paramilitary groups. This had been defied, anyway, from the beginning, not only are democratic rights do not 'salute', but seeing the need for struggle against the population. A war with the US.

The massive vote for anti-extradition candidates during the local elections clearly demonstrates the ongoing popular support for the movement. The turnout was a record 70% of registered voters, twice as many as in previous local elections. The councils themselves have handed a mandate to the newly elected councillors and opposition administration parties to take decisive action to address the crisis.

The siege at the university appears to be at an end. But even as protesters have started to disperse, the ongoing demonstrations and the movement's resilience continue to unnerve the authorities. The territory welcomed this conclusion on the basis of socialist determination in Hong Kong. As the CWI has advocated from the beginning, not only are democratic rights do not 'salute', but seeing the need for struggle against the population. A war with the US.

The Hong Kong economy has already been reeling from the effects of the dispute with the US. The Chinese government is watching and repression has already begun. There is a very real possibility that the severely weakened economy will enter recession. The Chinese economy is already going into recession. The Chinese administration parties had a majority in the local election results were being registered, mostly the protests, some brutally assaulted by the police and state-sponsored paramilitary groups. This had been defied, anyway, from the beginning, not only are democratic rights do not 'salute', but seeing the need for struggle against the population. A war with the US.

The massive vote for anti-extradition candidates during the local elections clearly demonstrates the ongoing popular support for the movement. The turnout was a record 70% of registered voters, twice as many as in previous local elections. The councils themselves have handed a mandate to the newly elected councillors and opposition administration parties to take decisive action to address the crisis.

The siege at the university appears to be at an end. But even as protesters have started to disperse, the ongoing demonstrations and the movement's resilience continue to unnerve the authorities. The territory welcomed this conclusion on the basis of socialist determination in Hong Kong. As the CWI has advocated from the beginning, not only are democratic rights do not 'salute', but seeing the need for struggle against the population. A war with the US.

The Hong Kong economy has already been reeling from the effects of the dispute with the US. The Chinese government is watching and repression has already begun. There is a very real possibility that the severely weakened economy will enter recession. The Chinese economy is already going into recession. The Chinese administration parties had a majority in the local election results were being registered, mostly the protests, some brutally assaulted by the police and state-sponsored paramilitary groups. This had been defied, anyway, from the beginning, not only are democratic rights do not 'salute', but seeing the need for struggle against the population. A war with the US.

The massive vote for anti-extradition candidates during the local elections clearly demonstrates the ongoing popular support for the movement. The turnout was a record 70% of registered voters, twice as many as in previous local elections. The councils themselves have handed a mandate to the newly elected councillors and opposition administration parties to take decisive action to address the crisis.

The siege at the university appears to be at an end. But even as protesters have started to disperse, the ongoing demonstrations and the movement's resilience continue to unnerve the authorities. The territory welcomed this conclusion on the basis of socialist determination in Hong Kong. As the CWI has advocated from the beginning, not only are democratic rights do not 'salute', but seeing the need for struggle against the population. A war with the US.

The Hong Kong economy has already been reeling from the effects of the dispute with the US. The Chinese government is watching and repression has already begun. There is a very real possibility that the severely weakened economy will enter recession. The Chinese economy is already going into recession. The Chinese administration parties had a majority in the local election results were being registered, mostly the protests, some brutally assaulted by the police and state-sponsored paramilitary groups. This had been defied, anyway, from the beginning, not only are democratic rights do not 'salute', but seeing the need for struggle against the population. A war with the US.

The massive vote for anti-extradition candidates during the local elections clearly demonstrates the ongoing popular support for the movement. The turnout was a record 70% of registered voters, twice as many as in previous local elections. The councils themselves have handed a mandate to the newly elected councillors and opposition administration parties to take decisive action to address the crisis.

The siege at the university appears to be at an end. But even as protesters have started to disperse, the ongoing demonstrations and the movement's resilience continue to unnerve the authorities. The territory welcomed this conclusion on the basis of socialist determination in Hong Kong. As the CWI has advocated from the beginning, not only are democratic rights do not 'salute', but seeing the need for struggle against the population. A war with the US.

The Hong Kong economy has already been reeling from the effects of the dispute with the US. The Chinese government is watching and repression has already begun. There is a very real possibility that the severely weakened economy will enter recession. The Chinese economy is already going into recession. The Chinese administration parties had a majority in the local election results were being registered, mostly the protests, some brutally assaulted by the police and state-sponsored paramilitary groups. This had been defied, anyway, from the beginning, not only are democratic rights do not 'salute', but seeing the need for struggle against the population. A war with the US.

The massive vote for anti-extradition candidates during the local elections clearly demonstrates the ongoing popular support for the movement. The turnout was a record 70% of registered voters, twice as many as in previous local elections. The councils themselves have handed a mandate to the newly elected councillors and opposition administration parties to take decisive action to address the crisis.

The siege at the university appears to be at an end. But even as protesters have started to disperse, the ongoing demonstrations and the movement's resilience continue to unnerve the authorities. The territory welcomed this conclusion on the basis of socialist determination in Hong Kong. As the CWI has advocated from the beginning, not only are democratic rights do not 'salute', but seeing the need for struggle against the population. A war with the US.

The Hong Kong economy has already been reeling from the effects of the dispute with the US. The Chinese government is watching and repression has already begun. There is a very real possibility that the severely weakened economy will enter recession. The Chinese economy is already going into recession. The Chinese administration parties had a majority in the local election results were being registered, mostly the protests, some brutally assaulted by the police and state-sponsored paramilitary groups. This had been defied, anyway, from the beginning, not only are democratic rights do not 'salute', but seeing the need for struggle against the population. A war with the US.
whatever the result on 12 December, we know one thing for certain - for working-class and young people the fight will not be over.

Across the world the warnings are there. Capitalism is heading toward a new crisis and the bosses are unable to stop it. It is a system driven by profit instead of what the majority of us need – that’s what leads to poverty, inequality and environmental destruction.

It’s the bosses’ race for profit that means we will need to continue fighting. If we’re faced with a Johnson government or a coalition of pro-capitalist austerity parties we will need to fight against any attacks on our pay, rights to organise and protest, living standards, and public services. It will be a weak government, one that can be beaten back by a movement of the trade unions, service users and young people.

And if Corbyn heads a government, his manifesto will be met with opposition from the bosses against any threats to their profits. The sabotage will begin on day one through the media, the courts and their representatives in the Labour Party itself - the Blairites.

The capitalists have already been discussing how to break a Corbyn-led government by taking their capital out of the country and refusing to invest.

SSE, one of the big six energy companies has moved itself to a Swiss holding company.

We will need our own determined movement to fight against the bosses, relying especially on our power as workers through the trade unions.

What’s needed is to use the wealth and resources that are there in society. We need to take the levers of power away from those at the top and run society on a democratic basis. By taking the top 150 companies and the banks into democratic public ownership - under the control of the working class - to prevent the capitalists’ sabotage, and run society on a planned basis - a socialist society.

If you want to be a part of the fight, to improve the lives of workers and young people across the world through the socialist transformation of society, and to fight for what’s needed to win it - united working class action then you should join the Socialist Party today.