

SOCIALISM 2026

The capitalist system is sacrificing the collective futures of millions of young people for the profits of the mega-rich.

Around the world, governments are moving towards re-armament and further squeezing public spending. Capitalist-driven climate change has continued to wreak havoc this summer across Britain and the world. Despite this, capitalist governments continue to turn a blind eye to big oil companies drilling and burning environmentally destructive fossil fuels, lining their pockets in the process.

Meanwhile, infrastructure continues to crumble, youth unemployment climbs, public services close and decent jobs disappear, all while the profits of the big business shareholders climb.

Capitalism is a profit-before-all-else system, and therefore completely incapable of organising society to meet the needs of the majority. It's a rotten system based on the rule of a tiny handful of billionaires, which is more and more trying to cling to power by attempting to cultivate racist, sexist and LGBT-phobic division.

How can we fight to end the horror of capitalism in the 21st century? How can we, as a vital step towards this, fight for a political voice for the working-class majority in Britain?

Socialism 2026 will be the place to discuss these questions and more. It will also come just days before international youth walkouts take place under the banner of 'Fight for our futures - not their wars!' Come to Socialism 2026 to discuss how you can get involved with Socialist Students in building a walkout at your school, college or university.

Come to Socialism 2026 to discuss how we can fight for the socialist transformation of society we so urgently need.

You can book a 'Golden ticket' which includes a night in a hostel in close walking distance from the venue. A free creche is also available throughout the event.
